

I am petitioning you to block attempts by the NAB to deny my rights as a listener. XM and other satellite radio companies are broadcasting content-specific channels that contain music I would never hear because national radio outlets and the payola/marketing networks consider my interests to be of minor concern. Local information on satellite radio is akin to weather channel local information and internet weather information.